Auction RULES

General Rules

- For your convenience, register your credit card at check-in to expedite check-out.
- All bidders must have a bid number. Bid cards will be provided at registration.

Silent Auction

- A bid sheet is displayed with each item. To enter your bid, write your name, bid number and the amount of your bid on the sheet.
- Full restrictions are listed on each bid sheet.
- Each new bid must be written on the next available line on the bid sheet. Amounts must be in increments as indicated on the bid sheet; bids of multiple increments are acceptable. Once a bid is entered, it may not be removed. A written bid constitutes a binding commitment by the bidder to pay.
- The highest valid bid at closing time constitutes the winning bid. The Silent Auction will close at approximately 8pm. Bidding on Super Silent items ends approximately 30 minutes after the close of the Live Auction.

Live Auction

- The Live Auction will begin during dinner. To enter a bid, your bid number must be raised facing the auctioneer.
- A bid will be registered only when formally recognized and called by the auctioneer. An acknowledged bid constitutes a binding commitment by the bidder to pay the amount bid.

Payment & Receipt of Items

- All items purchased on the night of the Auction must be paid for that evening. Payments may be made by MasterCard, Visa, American Express, cash, or check at the check-out table. The check-out table will open as soon as the Live Auction ends.
- All checks should be made payable to Philharmonia Baroque Orchestra.
- Successful bidders must take possession of their purchases the night of the Auction, unless otherwise stipulated.

Restrictions

- Unless specifically noted, dates for services, private luncheons or dinners, etc., are to be arranged at mutual convenience between donor and purchaser. Time periods designated for certificates, services or events are not subject to change. Unless otherwise specified, all services and events must be used within twelve months from the date of the auction.
- All certificates exclude taxes, gratuity and alcoholic beverages, unless otherwise indicated. Advance reservations for dinner, hotel stays, and other events are required and are subject to availability.
- Each item is auctioned as-is without warranty. Values assigned to some items being auctioned are estimates only, and are not warranted by Philharmonia Baroque Orchestra for tax purposes or for general value.
- All sales are final; no refunds or exchanges.

Live Auction ITEMS

1. PBO to Go: Elizabeth Blumenstock and Stephen Schultz
Donors: Elizabeth Blumenstock and Stephen Shultz

Enjoy a spectacular private concert in your home with Philharmonia Baroque's Co-Concertmaster Elizabeth Blumenstock and flutist Stephen Schultz. Priceless. Mutually agreeable date.

2. Premium Napa Wines
Donor: D. Michael Enfield

Four superb Napa Valley wines, all rated 100 Points by Robert Parker!

2006 Colgin IX Proprietary Red Estate, Pritchard Hill Vineyard, 750 ml. "With extraordinary intensity, beautiful purity, a texture and flavors that build incrementally on the palate, and a significantly long finish, this is a perfect wine." Robert Parker's Wine Buyer's Guide.

2002 Harlan Estate Proprietary Red Wine 750 ml. "[A] profoundly complex wine...it literally has everything one could ever want in a great Cabernet Sauvignon-based wine. Already drinkable, it promises to evolve effortlessly for 25–30 years. This prodigious offering is worth mortgaging the farm!" Robert Parker's Wine Buyer's Guide.

2007 Hundred Acre, Howell Mountain Cabernet Sauvignon, Ark Vineyard, 750 ml. "A perfect wine...It offers notes of burning embers, black raspberries, blueberries and flowers, a full-bodied opulence, wonderful intensity, but the wine is not weighty or overripe. Fleshy and voluptuous with terrific floral notes, it should drink well for 15-20 years." Robert Parker's Wine Buyer's Guide.

2002 Shafer Vineyards Cabernet Sauvignon, Hillside Select, 750 ml. "One of the world's most extraordinary Cabernet Sauvignons...utterly perfect. [I]t is an amazing offering. This wine should drink well young yet evolve for 2–3 decades." Robert Parker's Wine Buyer's Guide.

3. At Home in Provence
Donors: Peter Pastreich & Jamie Whittington

Enjoy a one-week stay (Monday to Monday) for four (4) at le Mas du Vieux Charron, a 17th century Provençal stone farmhouse owned by retired Philharmonia Baroque Executive Director Peter Pastreich and Jamie Whittington. The house formerly belonged to the violinist and conductor Alexander Schneider, who often gave concerts in the house's salle de musique. Peter Serkin, Pablo Casals, Isaac Stern, and John Adams have all been guests there. Located in le Paradou, a quiet village 15 minutes from Arles and Les Baux-de-Provence, the beautiful home features 2 bedrooms, 2 baths, a garden, and an orchard. Enjoy a great kitchen and mountain bikes.

Includes: One-week stay for up to four (4) people at le Mas du Vieux Charron; a walking tour with local resident Mila Goldberg in les Baux-de-Provence; lunch for four (4) guests at the Bistrot du Paradou. Can be scheduled, by mutual agreement, between March 5 and April 5, 2012 or between October 29, 2012 and April 29, 2013.

4. Fire and Water: On the Bay with the San Francisco Fire Department!

12. Rare Premium French Wines

Donor: Donna Williams

1986 Coche-Dury Meursault-Perrieres, 750 ml. Very rare. Beautiful rich wine, good minerality, sensual mouthfeel, huge aroma of buttery apple fruit, grilled nuts, smoke, fabulous texture and richness, enough acidity to provide focus, spectacularly long finish.

1993 Chateau Lafite Rothschild, 750 ml. Polished, well-crafted black cherry, toast, earth and mineral flavors in nice proportions, medium body, supple tannins, polished & elegant with Lafite's noble restraint. Ready to drink 2004–2020.

1994 Chateau Latour Pauillac, 750 ml. Tawny ruby, dense texture, pure intensity with a lot of finesse, nose dominated by earth, orange zest, tar & leather, converged to sweet tobacco bouquet with tinge of musk after opening up. On palate, exploding with dark red berries/ currant, good minerality, long lingering finish. Ready to drink 2006–2035.

The Chatwal

A Luxury Collection Hotel

An exclusive new luxury hotel, reviving the elegance of Old New York City. Once home to the famous Lambs Club, this landmark Stanford White-designed building is a star reborn. Fusing Art Deco allure with the luxury of today, we've reinterpreted 1930's New York City for the modern age. Welcome to a world awash with Gotham's bygone glamour. Here, gentility is alive and well and smashing Art Deco style is still in vogue. A dramatically re-envisioned "baby grand" hotel, The Chatwal has emerged as the Great White Way's newest leading light. Master architect Thierry Despont has beautifully restored and modernized this iconic midtown 5-star Manhattan address, ensuring no detail has been overlooked and no luxury spared. Sink into gentle slumber under the finest 400-thread-count linens. Pamper yourself with designer bath amenities in the spacious bathroom. Slip into a plush terry-cloth robe, order room service from renowned Manhattan chef Geoffrey Zakarian. The Chatwal is a featured subsidiary of of Starwood Hotels and Resorts with more than 140 luxury and upscale hotels in over 50 countries worldwide. We are proud to support Philharmonia Baroque Orchestra.
